Corners takers

How they ATTACK corners

- Possibility of a short corner
- ~1 player on the near post
- ~2 players close to the goalkeeper
- ~2 players positioned deep
- ~1 player on the edge of the box

Movement patterns while attacking corners

- Players on the near post & close to the goalkeeper tend to make runs away from the goal.
- Block of players running from deep tend to move towards the goal.

a hypothetical slide for now, due to data constraint

How they DEFEND corners

- ~2 players on the near post
- ~3 players guarding the face of the goal (Zonal)
- ~2/3 players man marking deep runs
- ~1 player positioned near the edge of the box
